

I support the merit service upgrade for current holders of the Advanced and Novice class amateur licenses. These license types are essentially stranded in terms of privileges with the recent rule changes. They require additional, non-value adding work for the Commission at tax payer expense to service the class. The examinations were much more complex 20 years ago for these license classes. I also support reinstating the Novice class 2 meter privileges with current power level restrictions. Regards, Robert Keller